John Ashbery Pratt Manhattan Gallery (New York), 2018 Poetry. Art. Collage. Edited by Antonio Sergio Bessa.

Presenting over one hundred and twenty collages and archival material, JOHN ASHBERY: THE CONSTRUCTION OF FICTION is the most comprehensive catalog of John Ashbery's prolific collage work produced alongside his illustrious poetic career. Composition, whether with images or words, was Ashbery's métier and collage became a major strategy since the beginning of his career as a poet. Through collage, Ashbery suggested narrative through the juxtaposition of seemingly random imagery that left to the reader the task of filling the gaps and making connections.

The Little Louvre Jacob Abbott, 2018-01-25 Excerpt from The Little Louvre: Or the Boys' and Girls' Gallery of Pictures The great Louvre is a picture gallery in Paris, or rather it is an ancient palace containing a picture gallery, Which is renowned throughout the world. Besides a great many smaller apartments, it contains one hall about a quarter of a mile long, the walls of which, on both sides, are crowded with paintings all the way. There are no Windows in the sides of this hall, for Windows would occupy the space that is required for the paintings. Provision is accordingly made for lighting the apartment from above. This picture gallery is visited every year by hundreds of thousands of persons from all parts of the world. Groups and parties of these visitors are continually Walking up and down the long hall, looking at the pictures, and at the artists, male and female, that are seated before them at their easels, making copies. It is from this great and world-renowned gallery that the smaller and humbler collection of pictures herewith presented to the reader receives its name. The Goude Touch Jean Paul Goude,2009 This book assembles a collection of advertising artwork he created over a ten-year period for Galeries Lafayette - Paris's most celebrated department store. Around 200 works, including over 100 working documents, are on show here: drawings, sketches and final images that sparkle with creative vigour. Selected and arranged by Goude himself, they present a gallery of artworks that have not only defined a brand, but have redefined advertising and brand photography as we know them. Sexy, irreverent and often very funny, this book sizzles with Goude's frequently risqué sense of humour. He is the enfant terrible behind some of the wittiest billboards in Paris, in perfect control of his medium and with an intuitive sense of chic. Goude has created a modern classic of commercial art. In an inspired moment, Galeries Lafayette gave Goude a rare degree of creative freedom, and Goude responded with some of the best work he has ever made. Patrick Mauries sets Goude's work in context - alongside the great artists associated with advertising, fashion and publicity, such as Rene Gruau for Dior - and as a vital asset in the history of France's greatest store. This book is a celebration of Goude's creative zest and perfectionism, and his unique affinity for making fresh and engaging commercial artworks. It will inform and instruct all those concerned about the art of image-making, whether design professionals or simply those prepared to be delighted and entertained by chic, witty images that work. --Book Jacket.
